

FOIAb3b

Has U. S. Secret Code, Mr. K. Said to Claim

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3 (AP)

Soviet Premier Khrushchev bragged while in Los Angeles that his country has obtained top secret American intelligence codes, a Russian-speaking film executive said today.

Victor M. Carter, one of the city's official greeters for the Premier, said Mr. Khrushchev told him Russia has intercepted secret messages from President Eisenhower.

Mr. Carter is president of Republic Studios. He was born at Rostov in Russia and came to this country in 1920 after the Communist revolution.

"Wasting Money"

Of the American Central Intelligence Agency headed by Allen W. Dulles, Mr. Khrushchev was quoted by Mr. Carter as saying:

"You're wasting your money. You might as well send it direct to us instead of the middleman because we get most of it anyway."

"Your agents give us the codebooks and then we send false information back to you through your code. Then we send cables asking for money and you send it to us."

Mr. Khrushchev's comments were made in a boasting tone, Mr. Carter said, while a party of nine drove through the San Fernando Valley near Los Angeles. Among those present was Henry Cabot Lodge, United States Ambassador to the United Nations and Mr. Khrushchev's official host in this country, representing Mr. Eisenhower.

Mr. Carter said the Premier said his agents intercepted a highly confidential message to India's Prime Minister Nehru during the period of India's border troubles with China. Laughingly, Mr. Carter said, Mr. Khrushchev told Mr. Lodge, "if you want a copy I'll send you one."

Shah's Message

Mr. Carter said Mr. Khrushchev also claimed to have a copy of a secret message in which the Shah of Iran asked Mr. Eisenhower to intercede with Mr. Khrushchev on the Shah's behalf.

(At a White House dinner in Washington before his United States tour, Mr. Khrushchev was reported to have jokingly told Mr. Dulles that he sees the same secret intelligence reports that Mr. Eisenhower gets. He suggested that the United States and Russia pool their intelligence gathering activities to save money.)

Mr. Carter said Mr. Khrushchev was "very friendly" during the ride, although after he left for San Francisco Mr. Khrushchev objected to having had "the son of a Rostov manufacturer during the Czarist regime" designated to guide him in Los Angeles.

(On the train ride from Los Angeles to San Francisco, Mr. Khrushchev told reporters: "This man does not represent the American people. . . . The Bolsheviks nationalized the factory of his father and he is appointed to welcome me.")

Mr. Carter is a director of the California Bank and former president of the City of Hope Medical Center.

He said he notified the Central Intelligence Agency the following day of the conversation.

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT